TOURISM Information CENTERS

When traveling, keep an eye out for Oklahoma's freshly renovated Tourism Information Centers. In addition to the great gift shops and free Oklahoma travel brochures and maps that travelers have come to expect, many locations now have dog parks, selfie spots, touchless bathrooms and plazas where visitors can picnic. Each center is open seven days a week during regular business hours, except for the State Capitol location. It operates Monday through Friday.

& TRICKS

With major airports in Oklahoma City and Tulsa along with many U.S. and state highways running across the state, Oklahoma is an easy place to get around. Read below to pick up some handy information.

LORI DUCKWORTH

Here are a few ways to gather information for your Oklahoma vacation and make sure everything runs smoothly.

TRAVEL OPTIONS: There are many ways to get to Oklahoma and travel within the state.

- Highways: Interstates 35, 40 and 44 crisscross Oklahoma, and the state has many more miles of U.S. and state highways – including Route 66.
- Airports: Oklahoma's two busiest airports are Oklahoma City's Will Rogers World Airport (OKC) and Tulsa International Airport (TUL). Direct flights to and from many metropolitan areas are available, including Dallas-Fort Worth, Denver, Houston, Las Vegas, Miami and Los Angeles.
- Trains: Amtrak's Heartland Flyer train travels between Fort Worth (Texas) and Oklahoma City. It has stops in Gainesville (Texas), Ardmore, Pauls Valley, Purcell and Norman.

PIKEPASS: Traveling Oklahoma's 600-plus miles of turnpikes makes trips more efficient, and a PIKEPASS can make the process even easier. Order one by phone at (800) 745-3727, online at pikepass.com, at a store or at select tag agencies. Kansas' and Texas' tollway systems are interoperable with Oklahoma's, so turnpike transponders from those states can be used on Oklahoma turnpikes. A toll-cost calculator is available at pikepass.com.

CALL AHEAD: Please keep in mind that the COVID-19 pandemic caused many attractions and events to adjust operating schedules. While efforts have been made to ensure the information in this book was correct at press time – and that up-to-date details are available on TravelOK.com – it's recommended that you call ahead before heading out to a destination.

Unique Stays at Oklahoma State Parks

BACK COUNTRY CAMPING

Escape the crowds for an amazing night sleeping under the stars in the back country. Whether you're escaping to one of the remote spots at Robbers Cave, hiking into the National Scenic Recreation Area at McGee Creek or striking out on the Ouachita Trail from Talimena, load up your pack, get off grid and string your hammock up between a couple of trees at one of the state parks' back country campgrounds.

COVERED WAGON

Circle up and embrace your pioneering spirit with a few nights in a covered wagon. Perched on the edge of Robbers Cave's equestrian campground, this wagon features bunks and amenities like a mini-fridge, microwave, heating and air-conditioning.

YURTS

Glamp in style with a stay in a yurt. These round, tent-like structures hearken to the steppes of Central Asia where they served as the movable home for the nomadic Mongolian people. Today's yurts are a bit more advanced. Features like heating, air-conditioning, beds and a mini-kitchen offer a modern touch in a gorgeous, rustic setting. Enjoy a yurt stay at several parks, including Beavers Bend, Robbers Cave, Lake Eufaula and Natural Falls.

TEEPEE

From spring through early fall, enjoy a stay at one of the three teepees at Roman Nose. Inspired by the movable housing of the American Indians of the plains, these semi-permanent tents sleep up to four adults and include an electric outlet, outdoor fire ring, grill and lovely view.

WALL TENTS

Listen to the crickets greet the quiet of dusk from the porch at an Osage Hills wall tent. These heavy canvas tents are built on a wooden platform and furnished with cots and a wood-burning stove.

TINY CABINS

Build some warm family memories with a cozy stay at a tiny cabin. Inspired by the concept of hygge, the luxurious and snug tiny cabins at Foss, Beavers Bend and Lake Murray are the perfect spot to watch for fireflies from the porch at dusk or gather around the table for a nice family meal and some board games.

While many folks might think of a lodge room or rustic cabin as the typical stay at one of our parks, the state parks offer some surprising and fun camping and glamping alternatives.

LAKE HUTS

Load up your fishing gear and pack light for a stay on the water at one of our lake huts. The huts at McGee Creek are built on a hill and simply furnished with bunks, an air conditioner, a fireplace and an awe-inspiring view of the lake through the screened-in back porch. During the warmer months, head to Grand Lake and take in the Neosho River from one of the pastoral cabins at Twin Bridges. Open April through November, these round cabins feature ceiling fans and large screened windows to take advantage of the cool river breeze.

CENTER OF THE ARTS

From the Roaring '20s opulence of Ponca City's iconic Ponca Theatre to the magnificent colors of the Oklahoma City Museum of Art's glass collection, the state is home to an awe-inspiring array of cultural and artistic treasures.

A LARGER-THAN-Life STATE: IMAGINE THAT.

In 2022, the Oklahoma City Museum of Art opened a reimagined iteration of its Dale Chihuly exhibit. The museum holds one of the world's most comprehensive collections of the famed glass artist's work. The new exhibit includes new pieces and revamped versions of other works, like the beloved Oklahoma Glass Ceiling, shown above.

MEGAN FOSSMAN

A comedian, newspaper columnist, trick roper and star of film, radio, Broadway and vaudeville, Will Rogers was the ultimate multihyphenate. Born in 1879 near what is now Oologah, Rogers became one of the most famous men in America. His 1935 death in a plane crash left the nation in mourning.

BOTTOM LEFT: The Charles B Goddard Center for Visual & Performing Arts in Ardmore is a destination for a variety of arts classes, workshops and a summer arts camp.

⤴ A trip to Tulsa isn't complete without a visit to Gathering Place. Voted best city park in the United States in a USA Today readers' choice poll, the 66.5-acre waterfront park is an architectural and natural wonder that makes everyone feel like a kid again. You can spend all day enjoying its imaginative playgrounds and lush gardens.

LORI DUCKWORTH

« Meet and learn about the species inhabit Oklahoma — and some with more exotic backgrounds — at the Medicine Park Aquarium and Natural Sciences Center. The aquarium sits on a hill in Medicine Park, giving you a stunning backdrop of the Wichita Mountains as you explore the outdoor exhibits, feeding the turtles and watching the otters play. Inside, large aquarium tanks hold a variety of fish, reptiles and amphibians.

« Oklahoma communities love to show off their cultural heritage. On the first Saturday of May, the Prague Kolache Festival pays homage to the Czech immigrants who settled the city in the late 19th century. You can eat your fill of kolaches — a fruit-filled Czech sweet bread — while you watch folk dancers and an elaborate parade.

⤴ Over-the-top festivals take place across Oklahoma throughout the year. For six spring weekends, The Castle of Muskogee transforms into a 16th-century playground for the Oklahoma Renaissance Festival. As you explore expansive Castleton Village, you can browse the wares of 140-plus merchants. Grab a turkey leg and check out the jousting tournament or watch the bishops battle it out on the human chess board. If you're lucky, the queen might even grace you with her royal presence.

» Colorful street art brightens many Oklahoma downtowns. Los Angeles-based artist Kiptoe created the Shred City mural that overlooks the Enid Skate Park, and it's just one of many public art pieces you'll find as you explore the city.

In 2023, the zoo is slated to open Expedition Africa, a 12-acre area expansion that's been reimagined with open savannah habitats.

CIVIL RIGHTS ICON

A key figure in the civil rights movement, Clara Luper led one of the nation's first sit-ins at Oklahoma City's Katz Drug Store in 1958. Luper, who was a high school teacher in the city, went on to lead more sit-ins and participated in marches and demonstrations in support of civil rights. Luper died in 2011.

STICKBALL

EXPLORE NATIVE CULTURE

Thirty-nine American Indian tribes have their headquarters in Oklahoma, and each one keeps their culture alive in myriad ways. From a stickball game to a powwow to a state-of-the-art museum, there are many cultural events and attractions you can attend to learn more about the incredible stories of these tribes.

A LARGER-THAN-Life STATE: IMAGINE THAT.

Thousands gather each year in Stroud for the Sac & Fox Nation Powwow, which is held over four days in July. Considered one of the state's largest powwows, the event features social dancing along with singing, dance and drum competitions.

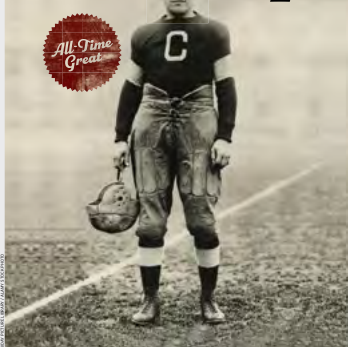

DAVID S. DRONIKOFF

Jim Thorpe

Sac and Fox Nation citizen Jim Thorpe, who grew up in what was then Indian Territory before being sent to Carlisle Indian Industrial School, had what might be the most epic athletic career of all time. Thorpe played professional baseball, football and basketball and won gold in the decathlon and pentathlon at the 1912 Olympics. Places to see: Jim Thorpe Museum & Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame, Oklahoma City; Jim Thorpe Home, Yale; mural, monument and birth site plaque, Prague Dance regalia is intricately designed and imbued with meaning. Each year, powwows are held across Oklahoma. At these events, you can see dancers from around the country perform traditional and modern dances while wearing vibrant, expressive clothing pieces like these.

CHEROKEE NATION

« Delve into the history of one of the largest Native American tribes at the Cherokee National History Museum. Housed in the stately building that served as the Cherokees' original capitol in Tahlequah, the interactive museum tells the tribe's story through art, artifacts and the voices of the Cherokee people themselves. It's just one of many cultural attractions run by the tribe in northeastern Oklahoma.

» Fluffy fry bread is a beloved treat among many tribes. At FireLake Fry Bread Taco in Shawnee, you'll find versions with savory and sweet topping options. Run by the Citizen Potawatomi Nation, the taco shop is one of several tribal-owned eateries around the state that serve modern and traditional native cuisine. Others include the Choctaw Nation's Champuli Cafe in Calera and the Cherokee Nation's Kawi Cafe in Tahlequah.

COMANCHE NATION PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE

» You'll find no shortage of things to see and do at the Comanche Nation Fair, a three-day September event that combines favorite tribal activities with other fun events. Held at the Comanche Nation Complex in Lawton, the fair highlights include a powwow, carnival, music festival, art show and sports tournaments.

Order the Oklahoma Indian Country Guide

If you want to learn more about Native American culture in Oklahoma, order this free guide at TravelOK.com/Brochures. It highlights cultural attractions, historic sites and events around the state where you can explore the tribes' histories and cultures.

◀ From the moment you walk into the Choctaw Cultural Center in Calera, you'll find yourself immersed in the tribe's history and culture. The lobby is designed to evoke a traditional Choctaw home, known as a chukka, with a fireplace at the center. As you explore, you'll find interactive exhibits that tell the tribes' story and art by Choctaw artists. There's also an elaborate children's play area, gift shop and restaurant. Outside is a living village with chukkas, a stickball field and a garden with heirloom crops.

⚡ At the First Americans Museum in Oklahoma City, you can discover the distinct stories of the 39 tribes that now make Oklahoma their home. The 175,000-square-foot facility contains art, artifacts and many digital media elements. It also hosts many special events, including summer and winter solstice celebrations.

PAWNEE BILL'S WILD WEST SHOW

EXPLORE THE WEST

In the state where one of the greatest showmen once lived, cowboys and cowgirls still shine in the spotlight. From the arena in Pawnee where, once a year, Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show rides again, to the stages where Oklahoma musicians croon for thousands of screaming fans, the state's Western culture stands tall.

A LARGER-THAN-Life STATE: IMAGINE THAT.

Tumbleweed A

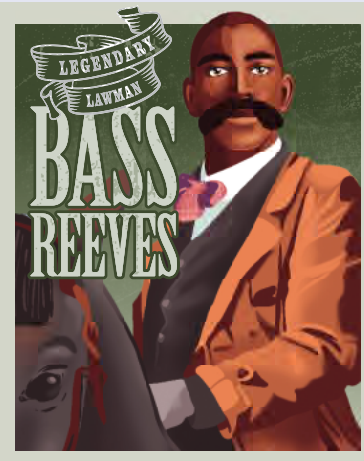

Tumbleweed Dance Hall in Stillwater was one of Garth Brooks' early performance venues, and many stars have played there since those days. Each April, the venue hosts top red dirt and country acts at Calf Fry. The three-day festival offers music on indoor and outdoor stages from artists like Parker McCollum, above.

DEVIN WILBER

One of the country's most legendary lawmen, famed deputy U.S. Marshal Bass Reeves apprehended more than 3,000 outlaws throughout his career working in what was then Indian Territory. It's speculated that Reeves' legend helped inspire the main characters in Django Unchained, The Lone Ranger and True Grit.

⤴ Home to the world's cattle market, Oklahoma City's Stockyards City is a one-of-a-kind destination. You can shop for boots and hats at the same places real cowboys do and dine at unforgettable steakhouses. The area also hosts several yearly events, including the Stockyards Stampede each October. It features a procession of longhorns and other opportunities for the little buckaroos to learn about the Western life.

⤵ Oklahoma is still filled with craftsmen who produce the high-quality gear needed for ranch and rodeo life. Since 1941, Mock Brothers Saddlery in Sand Springs has been crafting leather goods. The business, now run by a third generation of the Mock family, is known for its saddles, some of which take 70 hours to make.

DOWNTOWN
Oklahoma City

Central Oklahoma

Whether you hop onto a streetcar to explore the urban core or spend the day immersing yourself in a unique museum, this region has it all. From big-city streetscapes to charming small towns to fun-filled festivals, there's always something to do.

A LARGER-THAN-Life STATE: IMAGINE THAT.

At Skeletons: Museum of Osteology in Oklahoma City, you'll find more than 800 skeletons from all over the world.

MUSEUM OF OSTEOLOGY

Born in 1914 in Oklahoma City and raised in the city's Deep Deuce District, Ralph Ellison would go on to write what is widely considered one of the greatest novels of the 20th century. "Invisible Man," won the National Book Award for fiction in 1953, making Ellison, who died in 1994, the first African American writer to win the award.

INSPIRATION

Whether you want your adventures to include urban green spaces, cultural attractions or family farms, Central Oklahoma provides a seemingly endless supply of activities.

Outdoor Destinations

SCISSORTAIL PARK: The second half of Oklahoma City's downtown jewel opened in 2022, expanding it to 70 acres. The new lower park area includes sports fields and courts along with a nature playground. The upper park's highlights include gardens, trails and a lake. (405) 445-6277 | scissortailpark.org

THUNDERBIRD STATE PARK: Set along the shores of Lake Thunderbird, this park in Norman is a popular spot for activities on and in the water. You'll also find numerous hiking and mountain biking trails, and the whole family will enjoy the nature center. (405) 360-3572 | TravelOK.com/ThunderbirdSP

WILL ROGERS GARDENS: Stroll through 30 acres of lush gardens in one of Oklahoma City's oldest parks, where a 2-acre color garden features vibrant displays of seasonal blooms. (405) 297-1394 | okc.gov

Family-Friendly Fun

EXPRESS CLYDESDALES RANCH: Head out to this Yukon ranch to meet its team of rare black-and-white Clydesdale horses. Book a free tour to see these gentle giants in their home, a beautifully restored barn built in 1936. (405) 350-6404 | expressclydesdales.com

ORR FAMILY FARM: The whole gang will have a blast at this farm on Oklahoma City's southern edge. You can pet farm animals and try all kinds of kid-friendly activities, and each season brings new fun events like a pumpkin patch. You can stay overnight in a covered wagon or teepee. (405) 799-3276 | orrfamilyfarm.com

RT 66 BOWL: You'll get a kick out of this family fun center in Chandler. It's steeped in nostalgia, with vintage signs displayed inside and outside. Inside, you can bowl, eat pizza and play miniature golf, laser tag and arcade games. (405) 258-2695 | rt66bowl.com

FOR THOUGHT

Ready for culinary adventure? Here are six one-of-a-kind dining destinations to try in Central Oklahoma.

Eischen's Bar

Ma Der Lao Kitchen

Good Little Eater

EISCHEN'S BAR: Make a trip to Okarche to try the perfectly crispy fried chicken that is one of Oklahoma's most iconic foods — and to soak in the ambiance of a restaurant that's been around since 1896. Each order is for a whole chicken (for the uninitiated, that's eight pieces), so bring a friend or two to help polish off the bird and a heaping plate of fried okra. (405) 263-9939 | eischensbar.com

GOOD LITTLE EATER: No one will judge you if you go for dessert first at this little Stillwater lunch spot, especially if you stop by on Pie Day Friday. But the ever-changing menu also features delightful entrees. Options range from enchiladas to sandwiches to quiche, and there's a focus on using locally sourced ingredients. (405) 533-1280 | goodlittleeater.net

MA DER LAO KITCHEN: It's only been open since 2021, but this Laotian restaurant in Oklahoma City's Plaza District has already earned accolades from Bon Appetit magazine and The New York Times thanks to its spicy, flavorful food and inventive cocktails and mocktails. Try the Nam Khao, a crispy rice dish with mint, cilantro and green onions. (405) 900-5503 | maderlaokitchen.com

THE FARMER'S DAUGHTER MARKET: Stop by this homey eatery and shop in Tecumseh for home-cooking Oklahoma style. Whether you're in the mood for barbecue, soup or a salad or want to indulge your sweet tooth with something from the pastry cases, you're sure to leave satisfied. (405) 598-2683 | thefarmersdaughtermarket.com

THE HIDEAWAY: Opened in Stillwater in 1957, this was one of the state's first pizza restaurants. You can start off your meal with hand-breaded fried mushrooms, then move on to a specialty pie like the meat-laden Big Country or The Hideaway Special, on which each slice has a different topping. (405) 372-4777 | thehideaway.net

THE MONT: A visit to Norman isn't complete until you find yourself sipping a Sooner Swirl on the patio of this eatery. The drink is a famously strong blend of sangria and margarita. Supplement with chili con queso, which is loaded with sausage, jalapeños and green chiles, and a yummy entree from a menu filled with American and Tex-Mex favorites. # Food FOR THOUGHT

Ready for culinary adventure? Here are six one-of-a-kind dining destinations to try in Northeast Oklahoma.

MAD Eats

The Shebang

Duet

DUET: You'll find a modern take on American cuisine at this chic Tulsa eatery, with dishes like the Gingersnap Crusted Salmon and the Albuquerque Burger with roasted green chiles. With your meal, try a handcrafted cocktail or something from the wine list.
(918) 398-7201 | duetjazz.com

FREYA: NORDIC KITCHEN: Feast on Scandinavian dishes and drinks at this Tulsa restaurant. Order Swedish meatballs, Smørrebrød — an array of Danish open-faced sandwiches — or the elk chops, which are drizzled with a cloudberry demi-glace and served with a herbed goat cheese sauce.
(918) 779-4413 | freyatulsa.com

LITTLE VENICE: With exquisitely presented dishes and a white-tablecloth atmosphere, this Sand Springs restaurant provides a classy yet cozy dining experience. The frequently changing menu features northern Italian-style food. The braised veal, lasagna and tiramisu are among the customer favorites.
(918) 514-0134 | littlevenice.us

MAD EATS: The eye-popping milkshakes steal the show at this Owasso eatery — whose name stands for Modern American Diner — but the delicious, generously portioned entrées are also mighty memorable. The brisket tacos and the Monte Cristo sandwich with raspberry chipotle sauce are among the crowd pleasers.
(918) 401-4353 | madeatsok.com

SAM & ELLA'S CHICKEN PALACE: Don't let the name fool you; it's all about the pizza at this Tahlequah eatery. The hand-tossed pies are known for their perfectly crispy crusts. Don't skip the appetizer menu, though; the mushroom caps and artichoke spinach dip are favorites.
(918) 456-1411

THE SHEBANG: If you're looking to unwind, this whimsically decorated restaurant on Monkey Island, a peninsula of Grand Lake, is just the place. The massive menu includes favorites like pizza, pasta, seafood and classic American dishes, and there's a two-story patio and a standing-room-only bar area.

GLOSS MOUNTAIN

NORTHWEST OKLAHOMA

From majestic Gloss Mountain to the mesas and buttes of Black Mesa, this region provides stunning landscapes everywhere you look. The area holds some of the state's greatest natural treasures, but it's also loaded with kid-friendly activities and unique dining destinations.

A LARGER-THAN-Life STATE: IMAGINE THAT.

Located in the tip of the Panhandle, Black Mesa State Park and its adjacent nature preserve are home to some of Oklahoma's most dramatic scenery. You can hike to the highest point in the state, see rare plants and animals, and stargaze under some of the darkest skies in the country.

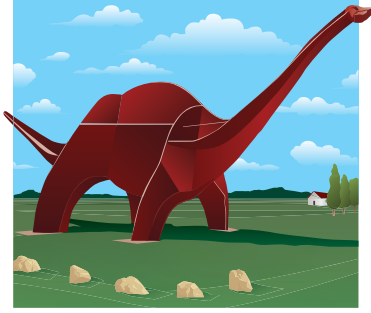

KIM BAKER/OKLAHOMA TOURISM

CIMMY

THE DINOSAUR

Standing proudly in front of the Cimarron Heritage Center, Cimmy the Dinosaur has become an apatosaurus selfie queen, providing those who visit with a memorable photo opportunity and a true idea of the size of dinosaurs. She's 35 feet high and 65 feet long, a size similar to that of her ancestors – one of whose bones was unearthed nearby.

Road Trip

INSPIRATION

Want to dig for crystals or see the tallest fresh-cut Christmas tree in the world? Time to venture to Northwest Oklahoma.

Family-Friendly Fun

LEONARDO'S CHILDREN'S MUSEUM & ADVENTURE QUEST: The whole family will have a blast at this massive indoor and outdoor museum complex in Enid. You can play with a giant Lite-Brite and Operation game and meet animals in the Critter Clubhouse.
(580) 233-2787 | leonardos.org

SALT PLAINS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE: This is the only place in the world where you can find hourglass selenite crystals, and from April 1 to Oct. 15, you can visit the refuge in Jet and dig some up to take home as souvenirs.
(580) 626-4794 | fws.gov/refuge/salt\_plains

WENTZ CAMP & POOL: Constructed in the late 1920s, this magnificent Ponca City complex is an architectural gem that overlooks Lake Ponca. The pool is 50 by 150 feet and has diving boards, and there's even a snack bar.
(580) 767-0430 | poncacityok.gov

Overnight Options

7 CLANS FIRST COUNCIL HOTEL: As a guest of this Newkirk hotel, you'll have access to the adjacent waterpark where you can zip down the four waterslides, float the lazy river or try out the rock-climbing wall. The complex also has an arcade and a variety of eateries, including the Flatwater Bar & Grill.
(580) 448-3015 | sevenclans.com

BLACK MESA BED & BREAKFAST: Head to Kenton in the tip of the Panhandle for a stay at a bunkhouse or cabin at this former working cattle ranch. Whether you want to bird watch or hike, there's plenty to do in this rugged area.
(580) 261-7443 | bmbb1.com

ROMAN NOSE STATE PARK LODGE: Stay in a modern lodge set amidst a beautiful canyon as you enjoy all this Watonga park has to offer. Activities include golf and horseback riding.

Historical Attractions

RAILROAD MUSEUM OF OKLAHOMA: Visit one of the country's largest collections of railroad memorabilia at this Enid museum that's housed in a historic freight depot. (580) 223-3051 | railroadmuseumofoklahoma.com

MARLAND MANSION & ESTATE: Take in the grandeur of this Italian-inspired estate built in Ponca City in the 1920s for oil baron E.W. Marland. On a guided tour, you'll learn about the history of the house and its eccentric owner. (580) 767-0420 | marlandmansion.com

PLAINS INDIANS & PIONEERS MUSEUM: Learn about the rough-and-tumble history of northwestern Oklahoma at this free museum in Woodward. Immersive displays depict different aspects of a frontier town, including a bank, a saloon and a jail. There are also exhibits that tell the story of the Cheyenne and Arapaho tribes. (580) 256-6136 | nwok-pipm.org

Seasonal Events

OKIE-TEX STAR PARTY: Star gaze with astronomy aficionados from around the United States at this eight-day fall event in Kenton, a spot in the tip of the Oklahoma Panhandle with some of the darkest skies in the country. (405) 418-6444 | okie-tex.com

RUSTIC ROOTS PUMPKIN PATCH: Whether you want to race through a corn maze or snap seasonal photos, this picturesque Lamont farm is a go-to spot for all things fall from late September through early November. You can take a hayride and meet cuddly baby animals. (580) 716-3608 | rusticrootsevents.com

THE ONE: If you're in need of a dose of holiday cheer, head to Enid. The world's largest fresh-cut Christmas tree arrives in early November, and 40 days of events — including concerts and a petting zoo — take place through the season. (580) 210-5910 | theoneenid.com

Shopping Spots

COVINGTON'S CUSTOMS: You'll be blown away at the incredible motorcycles found in this Woodward store that's a nationally recognized leader in creating high-quality, custom bikes. You can even take a tour of the shop. (580) 256-2939 | covingtonscustoms.com

DOWNTOWN ENID: Whether it's a boutique, bridal shop or bike shop that interests you, Enid's charming downtown is lined with stores for you to explore — and eateries to refuel in. (580) 233-3643 | visitenid.org

SHARP'S INDIAN STORE AND PAWN: Visit this one-of-a-kind Ponca City business to browse high-quality, Native American-made sterling silver and turquoise jewelry and Pendleton items. A favorite of local tribal members, the store stocks tribal regalia and all of the supplies artists need to make regalia. (580) 765-8731 | sharpsindianstore.com

Food FOR THOUGHT

Ready for culinary adventure? Here are six one-of-a-kind dining destinations to try in Northwest Oklahoma.

Farmhouse Fresh

Naifeh's Steakhouse

Cafe Bahnhof

CAFE BAHNHOF: From schnitzel to pretzel, this Waynoka eatery does German food right. You can choose from a large selection of traditional beers, and there's a beer garden out back. The restaurant also hosts a big Oktoberfest celebration each fall.
(580) 824-0063

FARMHOUSE FRESH: Started to help owner Paulette Rink and her family put extra farm products to use, this Enid deli truly lives up to its name. That means you'll be treated to the freshest food around and a menu that changes daily. There are items to accommodate all sorts of special diets, including vegan, keto and paleo. If you want to indulge, the dessert case is loaded with pastries, cookies and gluten-free treats.
(580) 231-7473

HECTOR'S Y AMIGOS: In the mood for Mexican cuisine? Hector Carajal and his friendly staff won't let you down. Try the Pineapple Fajitas. Served in a half pineapple, it's a dish so pretty you'll need to save time for a photo session. The generously poured margaritas are also a guest favorite.
(580) 256-1445

NAIFEH'S STEAKHOUSE: This Guymon restaurant is known for flavorful, expertly cooked steaks, but there are plenty more Naifeh family recipes that have kept folks coming back for four decades. Regulars brag about the catfish and burgers, and the vegetable beef soup is so popular that you can buy a quart to take home.
(580) 338-5355

PRAIRIE SMOKE BBQ: This Blackwell joint is a carnivore's delight. In addition to barbecue staples like St. Louis-style ribs and pulled pork, you can try inventive options like the BBQ Philly, which is loaded with chopped brisket and topped with cheese sauce, jalapeños and sauteed onions and bell peppers.
(580) 363-0747

THE VANILLA BEAN: You'll find classic American food of all sorts at this Alva restaurant — including tasty sandwiches and burgers — but it's crucial to save room for dessert. Among the decadent goodies found in the pastry case are cupcakes, muffins, pie and massive cookies. Stop by for Sunday brunch and partake of the Bloody Mary bar and smoked prime rib.
(580) 327-9068

Family Style Italian Cuisine

For more than 90 years – spanning four generations of the Prichard family – Pete's Place has been a local institution as well as a destination for travelers world-wide in search of great Italian food and hospitality; where the food is served with the same care and pride as were the original Prichard home recipes so many have grown to love.

Welcome to our house! — Joe, Kathy, Zach, Katie & Blair

TALLGRASS PRAIRIE is one of our many attractions!

- Largest protected area of tallgrass prairie in the world, spanning 40,000 acres. Starting and ending in Pawhuska, the complete drive is approximately 50 miles, and takes about two hours at a leisurely pace with time for stopping.
- Haven for watchable wildlife including over 210 species of birds and white-tailed deer, bobcats, armadillos, beavers, woodchucks, badgers and coyotes.
- Over 2,100 American bison make up one of the largest herds in the country. Mid-May, 600-700 bison calves are frolicking the prairie.
- 1920 ranch bunkhouse with public restrooms.
- Mid-May through mid-June and again in late summer, wildflowers cover the fields with blankets of color.
- In warm months, Dickcissel, Scissor-tailed flycatchers and other migrating neotropical species are seen frequently.
- Signature grasses such as big bluestem and switchgrass appear in April and by September reach heights of 6'-8' with a few patches stretching to 10'.
- Rough-legged and Red-tailed Hawks, Northern Harriers and Bald and Golden Eagles are common sights during the fall and winter. You may also see deer, coyotes or bobcats.

You'll Be Starstruck

 Black Mesa State Park

Need an escape from everyday life? Blast off to Oklahoma State Parks! Stargaze at Black Mesa, rated class 1 on the Bortle scale — a prestigious title reserved for the darkest skies in the world. Or unwind in the sunshine at Great Plains State Park, a fine place to fish or swim! But if a stroll through the woods is what you're pining for, get your fix on the new paved trail at Roman Nose. Eventually, you'll have to come back down to earth ... but your spirits will stay sky-high!

Ready for a stellar getaway?

Plan it today at TravelOK.com/Parks!

Accommodations

From luxurious hotels to cozy cabins, these pages contain places to get a good night's rest in Oklahoma. While every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, we encourage calling ahead due to continued uncertainty caused by COVID-19.
