ATTRACTIONS

A wild adventure awaits you at the Fresno Chaffee Zoo! Learn about more than 200 species, the zoo's conservation efforts and immerse yourself in various exhibits, including the African Adventure, the Reptile House, Sea Lion Cove and Kingdoms of Asia. Feed a giraffe, touch a stingray and help with sea lion training during a behind-the-scenes experience that is fun for the whole family!

Farmers Markets

Because Fresno County is a top agricultural producing county in the nation, you can buy the freshest produce directly from our growers all year long at local farmers markets. Farmers markets are a way for Fresno County to celebrate its farming heritage and bring the community together. Many local markets feature food trucks, live music and other artisan vendors.

Kearney Mansion

Learn about M. Theo Kearney, the Raisin King of California, how he developed what was then called the Fruit Vale Estate and how his entrepreneurial spirit dug the roots for Fresno County's vast agricultural footprint. Tour his mansion or have a picnic and explore the remaining 230 acres of his estate park full of magnificent trees and landscaping.

Blossom Trail

Drive along a path of pink and white blossoms and see why there is truly nothing like a California winter. You'll be in a blizzard of blossoms on your journey through the Fresno County Blossom Trail. The trail begins to bloom in mid-February each year. Nearly 70 miles long, there are plenty of festivals and special events along the way held in celebration of the blooming fruits, including the annual Kings River Blossom Trail Bike Ride.

Old Town Clovis

Old Town Clovis is a charming western-themed downtown, home to several unique locally-owned shops, restaurants and a vibrant nightlife. Browse antique stores and take in the sights along the Clovis Trails. A variety of family-friendly events are hosted in Old Town Clovis, including the annual ClovisFest and weekly farmers market.

Clovis Botanical Garden

Walk through and discover incredible plants growing at the Clovis Botanical Garden, and its organizers' mission to promote water conservation in Fresno County, California and beyond.

FAST FACT

Fresno's Pacific Southwest Building was the most expensive building built in California between 1920 and 1930! It's now the tallest building between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Woodward Park

You'll never be bored when you visit Woodward Park in Fresno. The 300-acre regional park has playgrounds, trails and recreation areas, ponds for fishing and a BMX course. It's also home to the beautiful Shinzen Japanese Friendship Garden which features gorgeous groves and a large number of bonsai trees in the Clark Bonsai Collection. Beloved by locals, there is something for everyone to enjoy!

5

MUST-SEE STOPS in Fresno County

Whether you're here for one day or one week, these are the things you can't miss during your visit to Fresno County!

1

Forestiere Underground Gardens

Venture through the Forestiere Underground Gardens, an underground wonder carved by hand in the early 1900s by Baldassare Forestiere. The Sicilian immigrant and citrus farmer spent 40 years excavating rooms, creating beautiful courtyards, experimenting with citrus plants and even built an underground aquarium using farm tools and his imagination.

2

Shinzen Japanese Friendship Garden

Discover the Shinzen Japanese Friendship Garden, established to promote peace and recognize the role of Japanese immigrants within the Fresno region. Explore the beautiful Ume Grove, get a view of the Koi pond, colorful blooms and learn about more than 100 species of bonsai trees in the Clark Bonsai Collection.

Mural District

Walk through Downtown Fresno's Mural District to experience art that embodies our community. From mystical creatures to the pride of Fresno, local artists have left their mark for us all to enjoy! Along Fulton Street, you'll also find statues by artists from before 1964, and the Acero Picado.

3

4

Simonian Farms

Simonian Farms is a unique stop to find fresh produce and get a taste of life in the Old West. The family farm grows nearly 200 fruits and vegetables, and produces premium dried fruits and nuts.

FAST FACT

The Tower Theatre, the iconic anchor of Fresno's Tower District, was the city's first suburban theater and is now listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Tower District

Fresno's Tower District is a neighborhood with a love for the arts. Known for its entertainment scene, restaurants, bars and unique shops, the district comes to life at night and is anchored by the 1939 art deco Tower Theatre.

5

FAMILY-FRIENDLY DAY

 Storyland

From arcade games and go-kart races to outdoor trails and the zoo, there are so many activities with plenty of fun for the whole family!

FAMILY-FRIENDLY DAY

Breakfast

Get a delicious start to your day! Benaddiction blends rockin' good food with a love for rock and roll at both of their fun Fresno diners. Try their unique twists on the classic eggs benedict or their flapjacks and hash browns. Another breakfast favorite is Jus' Jo's Country Kitchen in Clovis! From biscuits and gravy and pancakes topped with berries to breakfast quesadillas, you'll always find something mouthwatering at Jus' Jo's.

FAST FACT

Fresno County residents will never forget the tragedy that occurred on September 11, 2001. The California 9/11 Memorial and annual commemoration in Clovis is the largest of its kind in the U.S. outside of New York City.

Fresno Art Museum

Fresno County has an appetite for fine arts, and you'll discover work by local artists and artwork from around the world at the Fresno Art Museum. The museum preserves and protects more than 3,600 modern and contemporary pieces including works from Ansel Adams, Pablo Picasso, Norman Rockwell and others. The museum also hosts various exhibitions with pieces on loan from other museums and historical events reflecting the culture of Fresno County and the Central Valley.

Clovis Heritage Museum

In Clovis' Veterans Memorial District, you'll learn about the city's dedication to honoring veterans and how that spirit has remained engrained in Clovis' foundation since its establishment. With displays about Clovis' beginnings, you'll learn about the start of our cherished traditions, including the Clovis Rodeo, and how U.S. service members from our community stood up in times of adversity to make the ultimate sacrifice.

Fresno Philharmonic

Let the power of music transport you through time when you hear the Fresno Philharmonic. The Philharmonic is Fresno's professional music company that hosts several concerts throughout its season, including the Pops series which pays homage to music beloved in pop culture. You can see the Philharmonic perform at the William Saroyan Theatre in Downtown Fresno in the fall, winter and spring.
